

Where Is the God of Elijah? Always Just Enough

Till Plains 8/21/2021

Text: Matthew 6:34 Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about its own things. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble.

The Great Tribulation

Reference verses: Daniel 12:1-3, 13; 7:9-27

1. What is the background for the Great Tribulation?

---

---

Reference verses: Revelation 15

2. When will the Great Tribulation take place?

---

---

Reference verses: Revelation 15:1; 16

3. What major events will the world experience during the Great Tribulation?

---

---

Bread and Water Ensured

Reference verses: 1 Kings 17:2-7; Isaiah 33:10-16

4. The Great Tribulation can be rather frightening when viewed through human eyes. What promises does God provide through Scripture which give you hope looking towards this momentous event?

---

---

Reference verses: 1 Kings 17:8-9; Luke 4:23-29

5. How do the words of Jesus help you understand why Elijah was sent to the widow of Zarephath?

---

---

Reference verses: 1 Kings 17:10-16; Matthew 6:24-34

6. What faith must be exercised now, in order to be ready to stand during the Great Tribulation?

---

---

Lord Even Over Death

Reference verses: 1 Kings 17:17-18; Romans 14:10

7. While the world is focused on the judgements of God during the Great Tribulation, what is the focus of the faithful?

---

---

Reference verses: 1 Kings 17:17-24; Revelation 1:18; 14:13; Romans 14:7-9

8. What hope should those who believe in the Lord be holding in their hearts as we prepare for the Great Tribulation?

---

---

9. How does the story of the widow of Zarephath give you a stronger hope for the problems of today and tomorrow?

---

---