“This heifer was to be red, which was a symbol of blood.” – Ellen White, Testimonies for the Church, vol. 4, 120.

“Red reminds us of the blood of the dying Light of the world, and helps us to recall the condescension and compassion of the second Adam whose name means red. From Christ’s broken body and pierced heart the carmine stream of life-giving blood flowed out to mark His death, and provide cleansing of the defiled world.” – Leslie Hardinge, With Jesus in His Sanctuary, 84

“As blue mixed with scarlet produces purple, so obedience to God’s eternal truth added to sacrifice makes royalty.” – Sarah Peck, Path to the Throne of God, 41.

“And since the Tabernacle is also ‘a type of the Christian church,’ as well as of the human body or ‘soul temple,’ all the wood in the Sanctuary can be conceived of as symbolic of the weaknesses of fallen humanity.” – Leslie Hardinge, With Jesus in His Sanctuary, 97
